PRICE OF COTTON.

Today at noon, Tuesday, October 3, cotton selling at 16.50 per pound. Cotton seed at 80c per bushel—$53.32 per ton.

Farmers are bringing their cotton from Van Wyck, Pleasant Valley, Tradesville and many other points from a distance because they have learned that Lancaster is the "Leading Cotton Market" in this section of the State.

Don't fail to give all the buyers an opportunity to bid on your cotton and cotton seed, for in this way you will be sure to get the top price for your product.

FIRST NUMBER LYCEUM COURSE THURSDAY EVENING NEXT.

At Mackey Opera House—Meistersingers Male Quartet—Admission Only 50 Cents.

Last winter some twenty Lancaster people, interested in the welfare of the city and feeling the citizens of Lancaster and Lancaster county should be given an opportunity of attending some real wholesome entertainment features during the fall and winter, signed a contract with the Piedmont Lyceum Association for five high class attractions, the first of which will be given at the Mackey opera house next Thursday evening, October 5.

Those who guaranteed the attractions were: Miss Juanita Wylie, Messrs. A. J. Gregory, E. C. Mackey, Chas. D. Jones, L. C. Lazenby, R. C. Brown, B. B. Robinson, J. T. Thomasson, R. T. Beaty, W. H. Miller, M. G. Brittain, T. L. Hilton, C. N. Sapp, R. S. Stewart, S. L. Allen, J. F. Moore, A. G. Ellison, Paul Moore, W. P. Bennett, W. R. Thomson and Luther Ellison, and they did so feeling it to be for the best interest of the people. We sincerely trust the people will respond, and that a full house will reward the local committee for their efforts Thursday evening.

The Meistersingers Male Quartet which is announced by the local Lyceum committee as the first attraction to appear on the Lyceum course, is one of the very best entertaining male quartets on the platform.

This quartet has been before the public for the past ten years and has made glad the hearts of thousands of people during this time. Their program will include vocal solos, duets and quartets of both a humorous and serious nature. The company also includes a splendid reader, while the music rendered by them on the organ chimes is a novel feature which always creates much enthusiasm. It is said that the organ chimes which this company carries with them is the best in the Lyceum today.

Suppose you make your engagements now for this concert. The admission will be only 50 cents.
